Mayors' Remarks

Welcome to Kampala

As the Lord Mayor of Kampala, I am delighted to welcome you to the Capital City of the Pearl of Africa. I am quite confident that the rich cultural heritage, beautiful landscape, fresh water bodies; particularly Lake Victoria, tropical climate and soils, hospitable and cultured people are the magnets that attract you to Kampala.

Besides the beautiful terrain, rich heritage, environment and climate, Kampala prides itself in being hospitable, and welcoming and it is the real reason that makes this City shine. Whether your desire is nature, culture, mingling with the locals at the numerous festivals or dining in any restaurants of your choice, you will find it all in Kampala. This will undoubtedly help you appreciate the natural and cultural beauty of our City. But what will further make you fall in love with our city is what the locals offer. Our warmth, passion, welcoming nature, and friendliness are the magic ingredients that keep visitors coming back year after year, after year.

We have utilized spatial techniques to work on the City Address Model (CAM) to simplify the course-plotting and navigation. Through this, we have made great strides in improving and transforming the description of tourism locations through geocoding such as; coordinates, address and the names of these sites.

We have also taken a policy at institutional level to the effect that all roads being constructed and in the foregoing, must have pedestrian side/walkways. This is part of the Kampala Road Safety Strategy to ensure that the Kampala road and street network is forgiving to users where the public is safe from road crashes, injuries and all sorts of fatalities. We also introduced the Non-Motorized Transport (NMT) corridor which will address decongestion, deconcentration, and improvement of hospitality while you walk on our streets.

I wish to express my appreciation to all who contributed to the development of this Visitors' Guide. And as the Lord Mayor, I would like to recommend and direct my commitment as mandated under the KCCA Act 2010 as amended to promote the Capital City as a tourist and investment destination. By being dogged in the pursuit of our strategic goals and objectives, we will together make Kampala's future even greater than it was in the past.

I am quite confident this Visitors' Guide 2022/23 contains all the required information about Tourism in the City that includes; Tourism sites, Hotels, Food Centres, Major Places of Worship, etc. This is the official guiding tool which is conscripted to ensure that the motive of your stay in Kampala remains meaningful, memorable and moralistic.

VITAL INFORMATION

Prevent Covid-19 Infection

Once beaten twice shy, goes the old adage and Kampala City's new normal way of life comes on the heels of the two Covid-19 Lockdowns that had everything grind to a halt. The Minister of Health Ruth Aceng urged everyone to prevent infection. The measures she tipped all to practice, if counted, would exhaust the fingers on one's hands.

- Wash hands as frequently as possible

- Read your temperature at every entrance

- Wear a mask

- Sneeze in the V of a folded arm

- Rub fists instead of hugging, pecking or shaking hands

- Maintain social distance

- Go check if symptoms of sneezing, coughing and high temperature manifest themselves.

- Eat wisely to balance your diet and boost immunity

GOVERNMENT

The Kampala Capital City Authority is the main administrative body that manages the city. It's headed by the Executive Director, Kampala city has a mayor. Kampala is also the seat of parliament of Uganda, state house and all government ministries.

HISTORY OF KAMPALA

Kampala evolved from a colonial seat of power to a post-independence sprawling urban centre. The British and Indian architecture speaks volumes about where the area has been.

Amidst the foreign influence were Arabs who competed for converts to Islam with Christians. The dress code of the tunic and names of places like Salama (fine) and Mutundwe (slave market) speak volumes.

The original seven hills of Kampala were as enlisted below

1. Kasubi Hill, this is home to Kasubi Tombs where the decade's kings of Buganda are buried.
2. Mengo Hill where the present Lubiri (Kabaka's Palace) is and the Headquarters of the Buganda Court of Justice and of the Lukiiko, Buganda's Parliament (Bulange).

3. Kibuli Hill, which is home to the Kibuli Mosque. Islam was brought to Uganda before the Christian missionaries came.

4. Namirembe Hill, home to the Namirembe Anglican Cathedral. The Protestants were the first of the Christian Missions to arrive.

5. Lubaga Hill, where the Rubaga Catholic Cathedral is, and was the headquarters of the White Fathers.

6. Nsambya Hill, was the Headquarters of the Mill Hill Mission. It now houses Nsambya Hospital.

7. Kampala Hill, (also known as Old Kampala), the hill of the Impala is where the ruins of Lugard's Fort are. Its also the seat of one of Africa's biggest mosque. This hill is where Kampala got its name.

The city has now spread to cover many hills including Nakasero Hill, Tank Hill, Mulago Hill is the site of Mulago Hospital, the largest hospital in Uganda.

GETTING ABOUT BUS/COACHES

Several bus companies offer direct lines between Kampala and neighbouring countries have stations in the city. A night bus from Kampala could start at 16:00hrs to arrive at 06:00hrs in Nairobi.

Uganda has decent bus system. There are two classes of buses. The “matatu taxis” are actually minibuses or commuter vans which run fixed routes. Then there are the real buses which run less frequently, usually leaving Kampala early in the morning. There are many companies which almost all leave from the same general area. Domestic bus travel is reasonable and cheap between major centers, and is a good choice for backpackers with time, but may not run reliably on schedule.

Note that both buses and “taxis” do not run on fixed schedules; rather, they leave their terminus stop when they are completely full. On heavily-travelled routes they fill up within minutes and this is not a problem, but on less-travelled routes (or if getting on a large bus), be prepared to wait a while before departure.

TAXI

The best way to get around Kampala city and the neighbouring towns is by using minibus-type taxis called matatus. This is the most efficient and cost-effective method of transportation in urban areas, but try not to get ripped off by the conductors as they sometimes try to overcharge tourists. The Matatus are crowded, cheap, frequent, and make lots of stops.

They run along fixed routes, picking up and dropping off people on allocated stages along the route. If you want to get on, stand at the side of the road and wave your arm. To get off, say “stage” and the driver will pull over and let you off. They’re not marked with destinations, so you’ll have to listen to the destinations that the drivers are yelling out the window or in the designated taxi parks in the City. If you’re not sure where to catch a taxi going to your destination, just ask a nearby driver or conductor, and they’ll probably be able to point you in the right direction. Taxis, called special hire taxis, are available in the city. Fares are negotiable over long distances.

CAR

The roads in Kampala are good. When planning to move around Kampala it is best not to ask how far it is but to ask how long it will take. Local drivers normally have a good idea of how long journeys will take. There saloon vehicle hire companies in the city. This will cost upwards of US$50.00 per day (not including fuel).

BODA BODA

In Kampala, the boda-boda is a good way to get from place to place. These are small motorcycles or scooters with cushions on the back and are cheap transport as used by locals. You will definitely wish to try them.

Entertainment & Leisure

There is something to interest the most sophisticated visitor in Kampala City. The range of attractions ranges from history, faith, culinary delights, marine, theatre, music nature and so much more.

CULTURE & ARTS

Kampala City is a melting pot of cultures embracing Ugandan and foreign ways of life. A casual walk around and about treats a visitor to the collection at The Uganda Museum, The National Theatre and craft shops.

If you are in Kampala City and just want to have fun there are all sorts of people to enable you have a good time.

THEATRES/CONCERT HALLS/VENUES

Theatre La Bonita on Coleville Street.

It is located in the heart of Kampala city and is the home of the Ebonies Theater group. The state-of-the-art Amphitheatre is well furnished. At times there are live music shows and stand-up comedy.

Ndere Troupe is a one-stop centre where one can be treated to a cross-section of traditional dances, folklore, cuisines and the finest wines. The amphitheatre is an open door. Stars and the moon are seen shying away from weird dance strokes and certain scenes.

National Theatre is vibrant throughout the week. On Monday is when artists entertain themselves with Karaoke and drama skits. Renditions of old songs kick the elderly off their seats or trigger feet tapping. As one dines on his Take Away, at the National Theater gardens eyes can feast on visual art at the African Village and others along Buganda Road. There are sculptures, frocks, footwear and toys that can be bought.

COFFEE SHOPS

The coffee culture is spreading in Kampala City like a wild fire. There is a café in every residential and trading center. Some grind the beans under your nose. Brewing is also done in a few minutes. Talk about convenience and management can deliver it wherever you desire to sip it. Alternatively, you could saunter about the city with a disposable cup in your hands.

ENTERTAINMENT, EVENTS, SPORT, HOBBIES & ACTIVITIES

A quiet Ugandan pub to the most happening with people always ready to make your night the best - Uganda's night does not end until well into the next day. Few Cities across the African Continent can rival the Nightlife of Kampala, some have branded it the "The City that never sleeps"

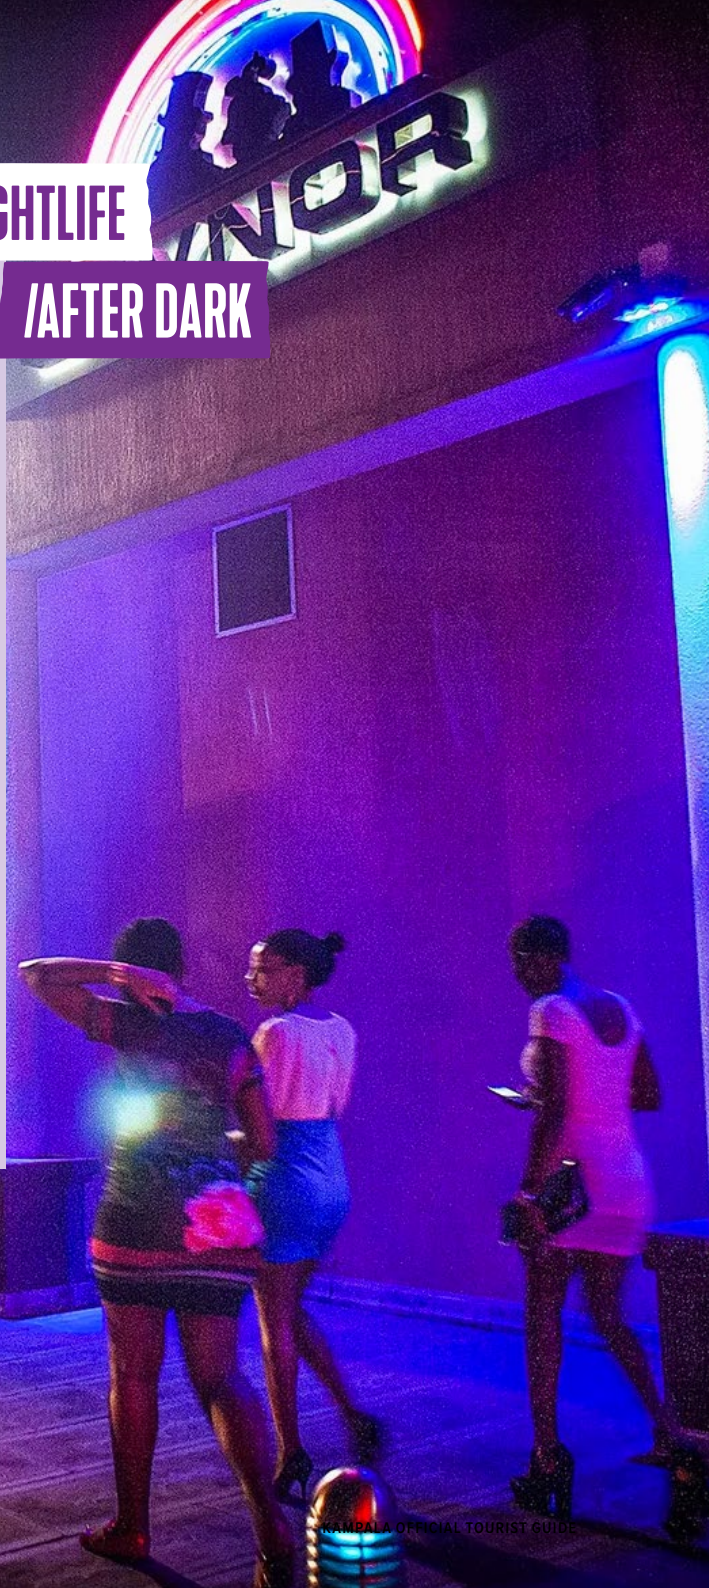

KAMPALA NIGHTLIFE

/AFTER DARK

Ugandans enjoy going out and going out they do. The Bars stay open until morning and the party continues all over Kampala. There is a party some where in Kampala and I am sure you will find it, just follow the music. Nightlife is relatively safe because of bouncers in the bars and clubs and Ugandans for the most part are simply friendly and hospitable. A body search takes place when entering most night spots.

The major area in Kampala with night life scenery are Kololo, Kabalagala Industrial area, Ntinda Kampala road. There is always a new bar opening featuring a wide range of themes in the city.

Here are some places where foreigners and affluent locals frequent when going out at night.

PUBS & BARS

Bars in Kampala are the meeting places for politicians, lovers, artists, tourists and the business fraternity.

They are well stocked with brands made in Uganda and imported ones.

Uganda Waragi is a local gin who name was corrupted from an English phrase, War Gin, by consumes. It is believed to make shy people bold, quiet ones get chatty and those on the dance floor flexible.

A MUST WATCH

If you're interested in traditional dance and music, try to catch a performance of the Ndere Troupe. It's composed of members of the many ethnic groups in Uganda and has gained international acclaim on world tours. The troupe has a new base in Ntinda, the Ndere Centre, out beyond the Blue Mango, which includes an auditorium, a restaurant-bar and even some accommodation. Performances take place every Sunday at 18:00 and are inexpensive.

Traditional Cuisine Luwombo

is a delicacy
where chicken, beef, ground nuts, dry fish or any other sauce is tied-up in a banana leaf and steamed over matooke or any other staple in banana leaves or a steamer.

Oluwombo or luwombo is a traditional dish of Uganda. It is both a royal dish and a fairly common dish cooked especially during the holidays. It was originally created in 1887 by the personal chef of Kabaka Mwanga, an interesting king who ruled the kingdom of Buganda (Uganda region where the country got its name from) at the end of the nineteenth century. Kabaka Mwanga had 16 women and 10 children. This dish can be prepared with beef, chicken, pork or goat.

The addition of smoked fish is optional but I think it that is what makes this dish so special. There are recipes that use smoked meat instead. Cooking in banana leaf is actually what gives this dish that unique taste.

Shopping

You can have an interesting mix of old and new, African and Western, sophisticated and basic when it comes to shopping in Kampala. In parts of the city there are markets and a few minutes away you can find a towering office block and a shopping complex offering designer labels and high tech computing equipment.

The range of goods available is the widest on offer in Uganda so if you need anything specialist or luxury it's always best to purchase it whilst in Kampala rather than hope to find it elsewhere.

For Ugandan products, and essentials such as vegetables and fruit, it's not worth visiting the more expensive western style shops, as the prices will be higher and the goods will have been sourced locally anyway.

MARKETS

Kampala's markets are a great place for bargain hunters. If you want to get the best buys available, there is one rule to bear in mind: you have to haggle. Local vendors are notorious for jacking up their prices when dealing with foreign tourists, so haggling is expected. Haggling can save you 20% or more on what you pay.

One of the biggest markets in town is in Nakasero Market this can give an African adventure shopping areas in local markets. Nakasero Market is Kampala's most famous market and is just below Kampala Rd. You can find fresh fruits and vegetable in, it is divided into two areas, one partially covered, where produce is sold, and another located in an attractive old building, where hardware, clothes and even a few tourist items are on sale.

SHOPPING CENTRES

Plenty of modern and 'western' style shops exist in purpose built complexes such as Garden City, Nakumat, Forest Mall, Lugogo Mall that are designed with richer Ugandans and foreign visitors in mind. They all have the feel and atmosphere of typical western shopping malls, with a mix of supermarkets, luxury goods and fast food outlets. If you want luxury goods, especially European and American brands, then the following malls are probably your best bet if you like to do all your shopping in one place.

- Garden City Complex
- Quality Supermarkets
- Capital Shoppers
- Nakumatt Oasis Mall
- Carrefour Supermarkets
- Lugogo Mall
- Acacia Mall
- Standard Supermarket
- Arena Mall

Souvenirs

As you contemplate buying a kitenge dress, scarf, kikuyu bag, African sandals or perhaps bangles, ear rings and African necklaces? Maybe your preferences are more cow horn saucers, candle stands, wooden mortars or wooden African masks, all of these, and more, can be easily found in Kampala.

In fact, the list of African crafts and souvenirs that can be bought at craft markets in Kampala is endless. Where to buy them is also not a problem while in the city, you will find quality African arts and crafts being sold out at many crafts and souvenirs in shops and malls around Kampala.

Your first stop when craft shopping should always be the craft markets and there are several in and around Kampala city, that sell authentic, good quality African arts and crafts.

EXPOSURE AFRICA

is a favorite with tourist and Kampalians mainly because of its location. Located in the heart of Kampala city on Buganda Road, this craft market has several stalls that sell all kinds of African crafts and souvenirs. Most stalls in the market sell the same items so the bargaining prowess of the shopper determines the price at which they take those African sandals home.

CRAFT AFRICA

Also on Buganda Road, it has various stalls that sell numerous African crafts like batiks, Masai. Security is taken seriously at both markets as there are guards at the entrance who check everyone that enters. Both markets are open seven days a week from Monday to Sunday and shops open from 8am to 6pm except on Public holidays when they are closed.

UGANDA ARTS AND CRAFTS VILLAGE

on Dewinton Road next to the National Theatre. This craft market is well organised and has a number of retail stalls arranged in a semi-circle that vend different art and crafts plus souvenirs. The clientele is mixed with a fair range of locals, foreigners and tourists. The Uganda Arts and Craft Village craft market also is open from 8pm to 6pm seven days a week except on public holidays.

For those who prefer to shop and buy in malls and shops there are a few sprinkled about town. Popular shops are in 1000 Cups Coffee House Craft Shop on Buganda Road, MishMash Craft Shop on Acacia Avenue and the popular Banana Boat retail store in Kisementi in Kamwokya, Garden City and Lugogo Malls. Shoppers will find prices fixed and higher but you will love the convenience.

Attractions to see

Kampala City bordering Lake Victoria treat marine life lovers to sport fishing, boat rides and eating fish. The numerous hills are tiled but harbour a wealth of history and cultural shocks.

The urban comes to life with skyscrapers.

ARCHITECTURE, BUILDINGS AND PLACES OF HISTORICAL SIGNIFICANCE

KASUBI TOMBS

A UNESCO world heritage site, these tombs were built in 1881 and currently house the remains of 4 kings of the Buganda Kingdoms, one of the most powerful kingdoms in pre-colonial Africa.

NAMUGONGO MATYRS' SHRINE

This basilica is dedicated to 22 young Christian congregants who were brutally murdered between 1885-1887 by Kabaka Mwanga for their allegiance to christianity. They were beatified in 1920 by Pope Benedict XV and later canonized by Pope Paul VI in 1964. The 22 Martyrs are the only African saints to whom a basilica is dedicated and they are the largest group of saints ever canonized by the Catholic Church.

KIBULI MOSQUE

Kibuli Mosque is one of the biggest and oldest mosques in Uganda with a beautiful view over Kampala.

For a small fee you can visit the mosque and the towers as well.

NAMIREMBE CATHEDRAL

Namirembe Cathedral is Uganda's oldest cathedral. The brick red Anglican Cathedral with the impressive dome is also known as St. Paul's Cathedral. The first church was built on Namirembe Hill/ Mengo in March 1890. The cathedral is visible from much of Kampala. Interesting is the graveyard which includes the remains of Bishop Hannington, who was murdered 1885, and the Cooks, who established Mengo Hospital. A Sunday church service would be ideal.

RUBAGA CATHEDRAL

Rubaga Cathedral is a Roman Catholic Church. The huge building was restored for the Pope's visit of Uganda. The church houses the remains of the first African Catholic Bishop and the first African Archbishop of Kampala Diocese, Joseph Kiwanuka.

KABAKA'S LAKE

It located in Ndeeba, between Ring Road and Nabunya Road. This Lake was dug out on the orders of Kabaka Mwanga in the 1880 as an 'escape corridor' to Lake Victoria. This is the largest excavated lake in Africa.

KABAKA'S PALACE & OFFICE (BULANGE) AND THE ROYAL MILE

This interesting attraction consists of two large palaces, (Kabaka's residence and the Buganda Parliament) connected by a straight road measuring exactly a mile.

When walking from Bulange - home to Mengo office, pay attention to the round-about - the straight road in the middle is for Kabaka's use only, as the local superstition says he must not turn a corner on this route. Half-way from the round-about towards Mengo, you will find a large garden on the right-hand side.

Learn the history of Buganda Kingdom and you walk for a mile from the office of the kingdom to the royal palace where you will explore more attractions like, the Iddi Amin Torture chamber

NDERE TROUP CENTRE

Get treated to authentic Uganda music, dance and drama with exhilarating performance from over 50 tribes in Uganda.

Built on 9 acres of virgin, gently sloping land with mature local, international and fruit trees, the magnificent Ndere Centre provides a picturesque environment that combines serenity with peace and tranquility. For visitors to Kampala, the Ndere Centre is the best bridge between your home and Africa. Enjoy life and make memories as you experience Ugandan culture and cuisine.

Aviation

When it comes to aviation Uganda Airlines is the national flag bearer with four units flying to Mecca, South Africa, Mombasa and South Sudan. The Bombardier CRJ-900 and Airbus A330Neo have eased the connectivity of Kampala to the entire world.

One can have breakfast in Kampala, fly to Nairobi for business and be back for dinner. Access to tourist attractions like gorilla tracking or the famed Kidepo National Park is made faster and easier by the aviation industry.

Further Afield

Variety is the spice of life, goes the old adage and Uganda has attractions that vary. They range from mammals, reptiles, primates, birds, mountains and cultures. It all depends on time, cash and interest.

GORILLA TRACKING

The Silverback is in Bwindi Impenetrable Forest where 450 of the surviving 600 apes in the world are found. A permit to track them and spend an hour in their company cost $700.

JINJA

The Source of the Nile Bridge is a cable-stayed bridge across the Victoria Nile. It officially replaced the old Nalubaale Bridge on October 17, 2018, which was built in 1954.

Come St. Peters Day and as one of the world's wonders, the 525 meters of the bridge is lit green at night – this is courtesy of the Irish Republic Embassy in Uganda.

BIRDWATCHING

Bird watching is one of the fastest globally growing tourism activities. Kampala City is the springboard where one can have more than 1075 different bird species logged on their list. The country is endowed with those that prefer water bodies, mountains and forests.

NATIONAL PARKS

One of the most amazing attractions in Uganda is Queen Elizabeth National Park. A boat cruise brings one close to excited elephants, submerged buffalos, tree-climbing lions and birds.
